

4 Budgeteers

A	D	1. The most important goal for our group is to complete the assigned project.
A	D	2. The best situation is for our group to have one strong leader. (team work is better, each member has its role)
A	D	3. We should have a high degree of tolerance for members who are late to meetings or do not attend due to other obligations.
A	D	4. For our group to succeed, having fun and telling jokes is as important as getting down to business and doing work.
A	D	5. It is impolite to criticize other group members (we can criticize work to receive better result)
A	D	6. Conflict between our group members should be avoided for as long as possible.
A	D	7. All of our group members should have identical goals.
A	D	8. Majority rule will be our best method of group decision-making.
A	D	9. If one group member is not pulling his or her weight, the other group members should confront that person together.
A	D	10. Everyone in our group should receive the same grade.
A	D	11. Each team member should experience different roles in the team. For example, rotate between PM, develop lead, QA. (We all work on the project)
A	D	12. Our team has online as well as in-person meetings.
